LINING 'EM OUT

BOY ATHLETES IN CITY LEAGUE ENDS; ANOTHER MAGAZINE IS TO APPEAR IN THIS CITY

TRACK MEET TODAY

Grade School Teams Competing in Series of Ten Events at Traction Park This Afternoon.

Philadelphia experts, after looking at Pfeffer of Brooklyn in action, say he is a real pitcher. He will add tremendous strength to Wilbert Robinson's pitching corps, is their unanimous assertion.

With Demaree and Mathewson in action the Giants seem to be able to salute the Pirates gun for gun with deadly effect.

Packy McFarland is now a director in a Juliet brewery and has announced his retirement from the circus. The Pack must be tiring to attend strictly to business and knock 'em out wholesale.

Hans Wagner is a very moderate smoker, which is said to be one of the reasons why he is able to stick around the big show at 40. BUT—on the other hand, there was old Cy Young, who smoked big, fat, black ones with frequency andunction, and he stuck in the same show until he was 44.

Anybody ought to be able to cultivate a light smoking habit in Pittsburgh. D'lever met a stogie?

Doctors say now, after thorough examination, that Jack Coombs may be able to take his turn in the box in six or eight weeks. Mack's iron man may round into shape just in time to carry the champs through the last stage of the battle.

In building up or in rebuilding his club, Hush Jennings has been up against a much harder handicap than either McGraw or Mack. The Giant leader, through all his shifts, had Mathewson to build around in developing a new staff. Mack has had Plank and Bender.

From the old pennant days of 1899 Jennings hasn't been able to carry on a pitcher from the old guard. Donovan, Summers, Killian, Stever, Willet, Mullin and the rest have all faded from his staff. He had to find an entire staff of pitchers—which is not the simplest discovery ever established.

And those who criticize Jennings for not having entered another winner should recall the fact that re-building a victorious club is no light task. McGraw won a pennant in 1895, and it was six years later, 1901, before he had established another big machine. Mack also won in 1895, and then had to wait until 1910 before he had erected his present legion. When a pennant machine cracks the wreckage seems to be utter and complete.

Willie Ritchie enjoyed a baseball game in Glenwood Springs the other day. As far as can be learned, this was the only baseball game this season in which no person, fan or player, called the umpire a big stiff.

One of the things the Wards' owners of the Fed Brooklyn team, announced their club wouldn't do is Sunday playing. When the Brooklyn Feds are in St. Louis recently the Wards' guarantee of a $10,000 gate for a game the coming Sunday. It failed to tempt the magnates from the City of Churches. There was no game.

Just to show there are no hard feelings the first annual pass for the new Federal league park in Brooklyn has been issued to John McGraw, of the Giants.

One of the most improved young players in the U. S. A. is Cap Peckinpah, of the New Yorks. This once awkward performer is a master at shortstop now.

New rule forbids a coacher touching a runner at third base, and in a recent White Sox-Naps game Umpire O'Leary called out a runner who was sloughed by a coacher at first base. This is a pioneer ruling, but the absolutely original umpire will be he who calls a runner out for being touched by a coacher at second base.

Second Baseman Bobby Byrne of the Phillips still lands on the ball the hardest of any of the little men.

DEFIANCE WILL TAKE FIRST TRIP TUESDAY

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Cambridge, Mass., May 16.—Yale today won the dual track meet with Harvard.

Final score: Yale, 66½; Harvard, 37½.

CORNELL WINS FROM U. OF P.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Ithaca, N. Y., May 16.—Cornell today won her annual field and track meet with the University of Pennsylvania.

Duck Pin Enthusiasts Will Meet Tomorrow to Make Ready for Their Whirl in the Limelight.

When the Bankers forfeited their match with the Foresters in the Drama boys last night the city hand-to-hand bowling league came to an end. The final standings were as follows:

| W. | L. | Pct. |
|--------------|----|------|
| Colts | 17 | .545 |
| Drummers | 20 | .513 |
| Santa Fe | 19 | .513 |
| Grangers | 18 | .513 |
| Bushers | 19 | .476 |
| Foresters | 17 | .417 |
| Con. Oil Co. | 18 | .381 |
| Bankers | 14 | .326 |

Palladino's Colts led from the beginning, but there was undiminished interest in the race nevertheless, and the league scored a decided success. The Bankers dropped out of the race toward the end, but the season was virtually over.

The proposed Duck Pin League is to start soon. Representatives of the following will meet tomorrow to name team officers and adopt rules: Schiltz, Postoffice, New Mexico Cigar Co., Reinwald Brothers, Economist, Continental Oil company, Santa Fe, Bruns-wick-Balke-Collender Co., Fagin's Hub, Laundry, Albuquerque Gas, Electric Light & Power Co., Investors, Mutual Life Insurance Co., Foresters, Coyote Springs Mineral Water Co., Underwood Typewriter Co.

Any others that may wish to join the league will be welcomed at the meeting.
